

PRESS RELEASE

RESULTS OF THE 2nd PUBLIC TENDER FOR THE ACQUISITION OF GEOPHYSICAL AND GEOLOGICAL DATA

The National Petroleum Institute, is pleased to announce the results of the 2nd Public Tender for the acquisition of geophysical and geological data.

The 2nd Public Tender for the acquisition of geophysical and geological data was launched on 11th June 2016 for a duration of 45 days.

As per the Terms of Reference, the proposals should contain the following information for evaluation: (i) Competence and Technical Experience, (ii) Technical Program, (iii) Financial Proposal and (iv) Health & Safety.

A total of 7 areas offshore and onshore were made available to competitors including:

- (i) T1 - Offshore Rovuma Basin
- (ii) T2 - Offshore from South Rovuma Basin to the Zambeze Delta
- (iii) T3 - Zambezi Delta
- (iv) T4 - Offshore Mozambique Basin to South of Rovuma Basin
- (v) T5 - Gravity and Magnetic Surveys - Southern Mozambique Basin
- (vi) T6 - Controlled Source Electromagnetic Data Acquisition within Angoche and Zambeze Delta
- (vii) T7 - Seabed Sampling within Angoche and Zambeze Delta

The assessment of the proposals resulted in the selection of the following bidding winners:

T1 - CGG

T2 (2D) - Spectrum

T2 (3D) - Schlumberger

T3 - CGG

T4 - Consortium ION/Schlumberger

T5 - CGG

T6 – EMGS

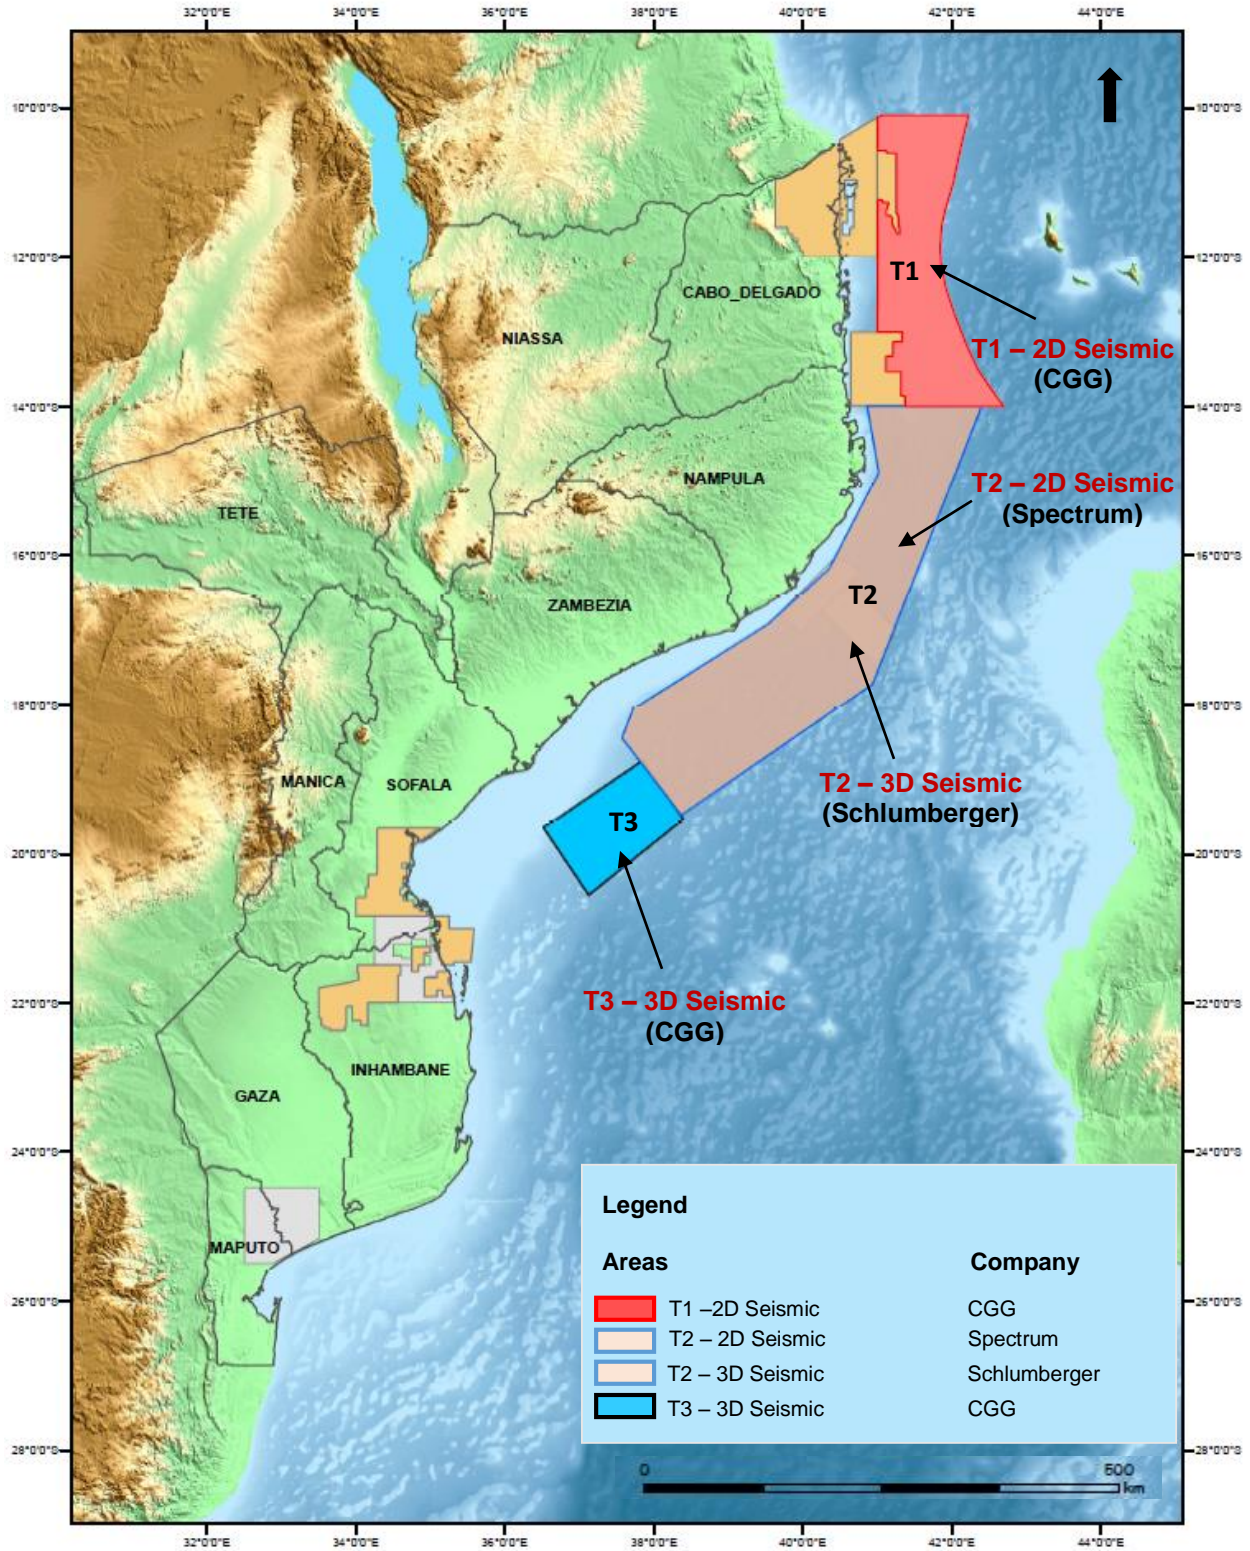

The above companies will be invited for the negotiation of the respective contracts in due course.

Annex 1: Areas awarded from T1 to T3

Annex 2: Areas awarded from T4 to T7

Maputo, September 9, 2016

Annex 1: Areas awarded from T1 to T3

Annex 2: Areas awarded from T4 to T7

